Turin, April 30. N. S.

BEſides the Four German Battalions that march'd for Suza the laſt Week, his Royal Highneſs has thought fit to order thoſe that remain at St. Baleine and Montanaro to advance that way, whither the reſt of the Troops expected from Italy, as it is generally thought, will likewiſe march, ſo that the whole Body of the Forces will be ſpeedily join'd at the Foot of the Mountains. The Court is gone into Mourning upon account of the late Dauphineſs of France, who was a Daughter of his Royal Highneſs.

Lisbon, May 1. N. S. The King of Portugal has been ſomewhat indiſpoſed, upon which his Phyſicians have adviſed him to a change of Air; and his Majeſty having made a Viſit at Salvaterra to his Brother Prince Don Franciſco, who lately fell from his Horſe in Hunting and broke his Thigh a little above the Knee, it is thought that he will continue there himſelf, 'till his own Health be better re-eſtabliſh'd, eſpecially ſince he is attended thither by his two other younger Brothers. The Queen is ſaid to be ſeveral Weeks gone with Child. Although we have no Intelligence that the Enemy have made any great Preparations on their ſide, yet our Court have thought fitting that all the General Officers ſhall ſet out for the Frontiers: And the Lord Portmore, who lately return'd from reviewing the Garriſon of Gibraltar, will ſet forwards in two or three Days towards the Province of Alentejo. The Brazil Fleet being expected home, Admiral Baker will to Morrow or next Day be ready to ſet ſail for the Weſtern Iſlands, in order to meet and Convoy it hither in its return. Commodore Morrice waits only for a fair Wind to ſail with the Storeſhips for the Streights.

Tournay, May 18. N. S. On Saturday the Thirteenth Inſtant, his Grace the Duke of Ormond, Captain-General of the Britiſh Forces, review'd the two Battalions of the Britiſh Guards at their Camp at Baſieux. Prince Eugene, the Earl of Albemarle, and the other General Officers at this Place, accompany'd his Grace, and were all extremely ſatisfy'd at the fine Appearance thoſe Corps made, being compleat, and newly Cloath'd. Lieutenant-General Withers, who is Lieutenat-Colonel of the Firſt Regiment of Guards, entertain'd his Grace, the Prince of Savoy, and other Generals, at Dinner; as General Lumley did the Lady Albemarle, with other Ladies and Perſons of Diſtinction, who were at the Review. A good Number of the Imperial Troops which March in ſeparate Bodies for their better Subſiſtance, and the eaſe of the Country, is arriv'd in this Neighbourhood, and the reſt advance with all poſſible Expedition. It is agreed, that there ſhall be two Armies, one Commanded by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, and the other by the Prince of Savoy: The Regiments of which each of them are to conſiſt, being appointed, and all other Matters finally adjuſted, the Diſpoſition is made for aſſembling all the Troops, which are paſſing the Scarpe, and forming the two Armies on Friday the Twentieth Inſtant, between Doway and Marchiennes, where his Grace deſigns to join his Army with that of the Prince the ſame Day, and there concert ſuch Meaſures as may be proper for their future Motions, in order to begin the Operations of the Campaign. The three Regiments of Imperial Horſe, which arriv'd here Yeſterday, fell in with two Parties of the Enemy, conſiſting of One hundred and fifty Foot, of whom they kill'd Sixty, and brought in Twenty Priſoners. The Enemy continue in their former Camp, between Cambray and the Senſette.

Bruſſels, May 16. N. S. The Affairs concerning the Bread and Forage for the Imperial Troops that ſerve on this ſide, are now entirely finiſhed, to the ſatisfaction of the Imperial Generals and Miniſters. The States of the Provinces of Brabant, Hainault and Flanders, with Machlin, having conſented to pay the Eleven hundred and fourteen thouſand Gilders granted for that Service, in to the Imperial Commiſſaries Office eſtabliſhed in this City upon that Occaſion. Monſieur Vanderburgh, the Ordinary Dutch Deputy, is gone this Morning for Holland; and Mounſieur Heems, the Emperor's Envoy, will alſo ſet out to Day on his return thither. Twelve Squadrons of Imperial Dragoons, with the Five Battalions of Eight hundred each, which arrived two Days ago, are to proceed this Morning from hence towards the Army under the Command of General Feltz. Count Tilly, General in Chief of the Dutch Forces, remains indiſpos'd at this Place.

Hague, May 15. N. S. On Friday in the Evening the States General held an extraordinary Aſſembly, at which four of their Plenipotentiaries, who came hither ſome Days ſince from Utrecht, were preſent: There was another Aſſembly held this Morning upon the ſame Occaſion, and in the Evening the ſame Plenipotentiaries were in Conſultation with the Penſionary Heinſius at his own Houſe. The States of Holland and Weſt-Freizland having taken their Reſolution upon ſeveral weighty Affairs, are ſeparated 'till the Thirty firſt of this Month.

Utrecht, May 17. N. S. Yeſterday Morning moſt of the Miniſters of the Allies had a Conference at the Town-houſe: In the Evening Mounſieur Goſlinga, Mounſieur Randwyck, Mounſieur Kniphuyſen and Mounſieur Buys, four of the Plenipotentiaries of the States General, who ſome Days ago went to the Hague, came back to this Place, and having notified their return to the Plenipotentiaries of the Queen of Great Britain, and deſir'd at the ſame time, a Conference as ſoon as poſſible with their Lordſhips: Accordingly, by appointment, they met this Morning at the Earl of Strafford's Houſe, where they had a Conference with him alone, the Lord Privy-Seal being not as yet perfectly recover'd of his late Indiſpoſition. Brigadier Briton, who is frequently in Conference with the Pruſſian Miniſters, has deferr'd his Journey to that Court for ſome Days. The Baron Forſtner, Plenipotentiary from the Duke of Lorrain for the Treaty of Peace, is gone from hence to embark for England, where he deſigns to make but a ſhort Stay, and return to his Poſt here.
